A Square Deal

Is assured you when you buy Dr. Pierce's family medicines—for all the ingredients entering into them are printed on the bottle-wrappers and their formulas are attested under oath as being complete and correct. You know just what you are paying for and that the ingredients are gathered from Nature's laboratory, being selected from the most valuable native medicinal roots found growing in our American forests and while potent to cure are perfectly harmless even to the most delicate women and children. Not a drop of alcohol enters into their composition. A much better agent is used both for extracting and preserving the medicinal principles used in them, viz.—pure triple-refined glycerine. This agent possesses intrinsic medicinal properties of its own, being a most valuable antiseptic and antiferment, nutritive and soothing demulcent.

Glycerine plays an important part in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia and weak stomach, attended by sour risings, heart-burn, foul breath, coated tongue, poor appetite, gnawing feeling in stomach, biliousness and kindred derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels.

Besides curing all the above distressing ailments, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a specific for all diseases of the mucous membranes, as catarrh, whether of the nasal passages or of the stomach, bowels or pelvic organs. Even in its ulcerative stages it will yield to this sovereign remedy if its use be persevered in. In Chronic Catarrh of the Nasal passages, it is well, while taking the "Golden Medical Discovery" for the necessary constitutional treatment, to cleanse the passages freely two or three times a day with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. This thorough course of treatment generally cures the worst cases.

In coughs and hoarseness caused by bronchial, throat and lung affections, except consumption in its advanced stages, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most efficient remedy, especially in those obstinate, hang-on coughs caused by irritation and congestion of the bronchial mucous membranes. The "Discovery" is not so good for acute coughs arising from sudden colds, nor must it be expected to cure consumption in its advanced stages—no medicine will do that—but for all the obstinate, chronic coughs, which, if neglected, or badly treated, lead up to consumption, it is the best medicine that can be taken.

HICKS'S OCTOBER FORECAST.

A reactionary storm period is central on the 2nd, 3rd and 4th. The storm diagram indicates that the combined force of Earth and Venus continues to near the middle of this month. On and touching the 2nd to 4th return to storm conditions will be noted in falling barometer, change to warmer, bringing cloudiness and autumnal rain progressively over the country.

A regular storm period is central on the 8th, covering the 7th to the 11th. New moon falls on the celestial equator on the 7th. Low barometer, very warm for the season and general storms of thunder, wind and rain will set in about the 7th in the West and during the 8th, 9th and 10th these storms will take wide paths in their eastward sweep across the country. There will be a change to colder, bringing frost to much of the country central and northward from about the 9th to 13th.

A reactionary storm period will culminate on and touching the 14th and 15th. Threatening conditions, with autumnal rains, may continue, ending in a secondary culmination or crisis on the 14th and 15th. Much of the country will experience very cool days and frosty nights nor far from the 15th to 18th. Watch and see.

A regular storm period embraces the full moon very close to the celestial equator, equinoctial phenomena not far from the 7th, as well as the period 18th to 22d. The fourth storm period covers the 18th to 22d and promises to bring decided autumnal storms. By the 20th cloudiness to rain will appear and from the 20th to 22d storm areas will make their transit east across the country. The crisis of the period will fall on the 20th and 21st.

A reactionary storm period is central on the 25th, 26th and 27th. Some early sleet to the northward will be reported before the close of this Mercury period, which is central on the 31st and extends into November.

A regular storm period begins on the 29th, is central on the 31st extending to November 3. As October comes to its close the barometer will indicate the approach of positive and general storm conditions from western sections. From about the 31st to November 30 rains will take up their march from west to east, followed by early snow and sleet over areas northward.

THE WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP.

The arrangements for the series of games between the Chicago and Detroit baseball clubs have been completed. Which ever way the games may go, there will be only two in Chicago where the series opens; two games in Detroit; then two, if they are necessary, in the city where the fight began. On this, Harry Pulliam and Ban Johnson seem agreed. This is because of the possibility of one team winning four straight and leaving only one game for the other city. The Sunday game will be played in Chicago at any event, because the park there has been enlarged to accommodate 25,000.

Pulliam has suggested that the players' end of the receipts be split sixty and forty per cent., instead of seventy-five and twenty-five, and this probably will be done.

Sheridan and O'Day have been agreed on to hold the indicators.

Overall is practically certain to pitch the first game for the Chicago. Brown, Reulbach, Lundgren and Pfeister complete the pitching fortifications of the Cubs.

Detroit's stand-bys in the box will be Donovan, Mullin, Killian and Siever. Donovan probably will twirl the first game. Lundgren and Mullen, for the second. It should make another fine battle.

In catchers, with Kling and Moran, Chicago seems to have a shade the better of Detroit's Schmidt and Payne.

At first, Chance, Chicago's manager, will oppose Rossman. Chance is considered the best man at that bag in the country.

In the infield Chicago has the advantage. In the outfield Detroit is ahead. In pitchers, Chicago looks better of the two. In catchers, Chicago is far better. But team work, harmony one thought and action—these factors will go toward determining the issue.

A Certain Cure for Croup—Used for Ten Years without a Failure.

Mr. W. C. Bott, a Star City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much fear the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequaled for croup and whooping cough. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

[Editorial in Hartford, Conn., Daily Courant]

Collector P. Davis Oakley has voluntarily withdrawn the personal bond of $25,000, given for the proper performance of his duties, and has substituted the bond of a fidelity company for the same amount. This commendable action deserves a passing comment. Mr. Oakley found no difficulty whatever in getting bondsmen, but, whoever his bondsmen might be, there could be no denying that they had put the collector under a direct personal obligation to them. It is far more independent and self respecting, to go down into your own pocket for the premium and pay a corporation, chartered for the purpose, for giving its bond for you. This cost him some money, but with that he buys complete personal independence and sets an example that should be widely followed. It is the way to do business; and it is no reflection upon willing friends to go instead to a company. On the contrary, it is doing them a favor. This bond was written by the

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SATURDAY EVENING, OCT. 5, 1907.

AS WAS stated yesterday, the significant action of The Hague Conference Thursday has attacted considerable attention in the diplomatic world. Yesterday one of the most animated discussions of the conference occurred at a session of the committee on maritime war on the subject of the time belligerent war ships should be allowed to remain in a neutral port. The British delegation supported Japan's proposal that such war ships be allowed to remain only twenty-four hours in a neutral port, even if this was not [illegible] ime for [illegible]ary to [illegible]ation- [illegible]owing [illegible]-four [illegible] coal- [illegible] votes. [illegible]ere many abstentions from voting, including the United States. Germany supported the Russian proposition. The whole project was finally approved with a few minor charges. This is believed to imply that in the event of a clash between the United States and Japan Vladivistock will be made a harbor for war vessels of the former. It was suggested in a letter from a foreign capital a few days ago that Germany would see that no demonstrations from a hostile nation should be made on the Atlantic seaboard if trouble arises from sending the bulk of the United States navy to the Pacific. The fact that Germany supported Russia in her contention at The Hague, as stated above, gives color to such belief.

AS STATED in the Gazette's Washington correspondence of that day Secretary of Commerce and Labor Straus took a decided stand upon the tariff question in a speech delivered yesterday before the convention in Washington of the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers, declaring that this nation had already run against a high wall in other countries on account of the high tariff wall in this country. The Secretary said in part:

If you build your tariff walls too high in this country you will encourage high walls on the other side, which are known by the name of "discriminating duties." We are striking that wall now. No one foresaw this more clearly than President McKinley, and no one has shown the way more clearly how to overcome the existing and increasing obstacle that lay in the path of our foreign commerce.

He recommended reciprocity and a revised tariff to meet the changed and changing conditions in order to gain proper share of the foreign markets. Such are said to have been the ideas of Mr. Roosevelt when he became President, but a change later came over the spirit of his dreams.

THE CATHOLICS of the parish of St. Rose, New Haven, Conn., who are without a church, have accepted the offer of the trustees of St. Andrew's Methodist Episcopal Church to hold services in their chapel. Three weeks ago, when the Catholics organized their congregation, they began to hold services in Polar Star Hall, a building used for theatricals. The trustees of St. Andrew's Church did not think that the theatrical building was the proper place to hold religious services and voted last Sunday to place their church at the disposal of the Catholics. The Catholics accepted the offer and immediately started to move their church properties into the chapel of the Methodist church. The latter will continue to hold their evening services and Sunday school in the church. This is the first instance on record in Connecticut that the same church building has been used by orthodox Protestant and Catholic congregations. Incidents like the above are refreshing to the soul, showing as they do the true spirit of Christianity which regards deeds more than creeds.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Oct. 5.

Acting under direct instructions from the President, it is reported that, Secretary of War Taft has informed the Japanese government of the firm purpose of the United States to adopt the policy of excluding Japanese laborers from this country. He urged that the best way to avoid friction would be for the Japanese government to agree to an exclusion treaty, but declared that if this course was not possible, because of local consideration a law would be passed by the Congress, which would effectively prevent the incoming of the coolies. It is the opinion of the President and his Cabinet that disturbances on the Pacific coast are bound to occur if the Japanese are not excluded, and that the best way to prevent friction is to keep the two race apart. The delicate task of impressing upon Japanese officials the inevitableness of this attitude was undertaken by Secretary Taft in his recent visit to Tokio, and the President is said to have been greatly pleased with the skill and success with which he has discharged the duty. It is declared that an official understanding was reached, which will result in a favorable disposition of the question, and that the Japanese government, if it does not agree to a treaty, will undertake to prevent any outcry in that country against the passage of an exclusive law by Congress during the coming winter.

The railroads of the middle west are charged with conspiring to ruin large creamery interests in seven states and territories, in a complaint filed before the International Commerce Commission today. The action is alleged to have been taken in retaliation for a similar complaint charging unjust rates, which was filed by several of creameries some time ago. It is held that business aggregating $14,000,000, annually, besides millions of dollars worth of equipment, will be ruined because of conspiracy. The complaint also alleges that in order that the ruin be more complete, competitors are not included in the new tariff districts.

Treasury officials are skeptical over reports of tightness of money in various parts of the country. They point to the operation of Secretary Cortelyou's plan to deposit $5,000,000 a day in public depositories when demanded by the banks to prove that the alleged stringency is largely fictitious. This plan was put into effect about the middle of August, and so far not over $15,000,000 has been called for.

Whether or not the big battleship fleet is as ready as the Bureau chiefs of the navy would like to have it, the start on the long cruise to San Francisco will be made on December 15. This is a positive order of the President.

News of the Day.

It is understood that the salt trust has decided upon an advance in prices of from fifty cents to one dollar per ton.

The Union Pacific yesterday pleaded guilty in the federal court in Omaha to the charge of violations of the Safety Appliance Laws.

Playing highwayman, Harry Kauffmar, aged 13 years, accidentally shot and killed his nine-year-old brother, Edward Kauffman, near Nottingham Pa. yesterday.

The new Magnolia Hotel at Magnolia, Mass., was burned to the ground today. The immense structure was unoccupied and the flames ran through it with startling rapidity. The loss is $100,000.

The fire which destroyed four-fifths of Hakodata, the capital and metropolis of Nokkaido, Japan, was a far greater calamity to the Nippon Empire than the San Francisco earthquake was to the United States.

Martin Maloney, of New York, Marquis of the Roman Catholic church, and one of the richest of the Standard Oil group of capitalists, believes his daughter, Helen, has eloped with Samuel Clarkson, a young Englishman.

An unidentified man jumped from the ferry boat Hudson City's deck between Manhattan and Long Island City, N. Y. early today. A thirty minutes search for him was made in vain. His hat, fished from the water, bore the initials "F. B."

Worried by anxiety over charges of cruelty preferred against him before the French Consul, in New York, by stokers in his fire room, Chief Engineer Emile A. Hauchecorne, of the tramp steamship Charles Tiberghein, of Marseilles, hanged himself in his engine room today.

An omnibus contract by which the Standard Oil Company obtains from steamship companies operating between New York and African ports half rates for shipments of lubricating oil was produced yesterday in the hearing of the federal suit against the alleged oil combine.

Insanely jealous of his handsome young wife, John Bohnrueller, a Brooklyn saloonkeeper, yesterday shot her to death and then killed himself. The bodies were found in the apartments which the couple had occupied. In the kitchen there were evidences that Mrs. Bohnrueller was preparing breakfast when she was shot down. The husband's body was found in a bed room. Neighbors said the couple quarreled frequently because of the husband's jealousy.

When Thomas Crossley, eighty years old, of Frosty Valley, near Wilkesbarre, Pa., awoke early Thursday morning he found a man in bed with him swearing at him for pulling off the bed clothes. Crossley shouted for help, but was silenced by a threat to kill him. The man then coolly told him he was a burglar, that he had ransacked the house, and that he meant to remain until daylight. He did so. Crossley lived alone and the burglar evidently expected to find a hoard of money, but did not.

Mr. Weakly leaves a wife and four little children.

A dispatch from Bristol says that T. E. Moreland, a prosperous merchant at Clinchport, was fatally shot in his store Thursday night by Charles Oliver, a barber, who occupied an adjoining room. Moreland died yesterday morning. Oliver surrendered himself to the authorities. Moreland, usually a peaceful man, became intoxicated Thursday night and threatened violence to his family. When Oliver entered the store Moreland turned on him. Oliver left after a quarrel, but returned with a gun and shot Moreland, the charge entering his abdomen. Moreland was forty years old. He is survived by his widow and one child.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Oct. 5.—The market during the first hour was dull and extremely narrow, with fluctuations in the few stocks traded in confined to a range of 1-2. Little covering caused slight gains to be recorded in the first few minutes. But from then on the market dragged, and where there was any show of business, it was generally at the lower figures. In governments, the 4's registered declined 1-4, and the 4's coupon lost 1-2. Other bonds dull.

THE PRESIDENT IN TENNESSEE.

With bands playing, children singing and enthusiastic men shouting the slogan of deep waterways Memphis threw wide her gates yesterday afternoon to President Roosevelt, a score of governors and many other distinguished personages in the Mississippi Valley.

The President arrived on the steamer Mississippi shortly after 1 o'clock. The bluffs overlooking the river were packed with people, who gave the chief executive a warm welcome. As the steamer landed the whistles of all craft in the harbor were sounded. Immediately following was the steamer Alton, carrying visiting governors and other notables.

When all had landed the President was conducted to a carriage by Governor Patterson, of Tennessee, and Mayor Malone, of Memphis, and the most imposing parade ever seen in Memphis was begun. The President was continuously cheered throughout the march. The city was a waving mass of color, not only along the line of parade, but on many other streets as well.

When the President's carriage turned into Main street he was saluted by a regiment of Confederate Veterans, who thereafter acted as a bodyguard. The President rose and warmly greeted the warriors of nearly a half century ago.

Despite a lively downpour of rain, which lasted until noon, the streets were jammed with citizens and visitors. In Second street 200 schoolchildren, seated on a decorated arch, sang patriotic airs as the President passed. The President rose in his carriage and bowed repeatedly to the little ones.

Arriving at the Auditorium rink, where the Deep Waterways Convention is holding, President Roosevelt alighted, chatted with several friends and ascended the platform. The huge structure filled up rapidly, and when Gov. Malcolm Patterson rose to present the President an immense assemblage greeted him.

President Roosevelt departed from his printed speech in several instances. Speaking of the Confederate guard of honor, he said it was a touching sight to see these old Confederate soldiers carrying the flag of this great union. If anyone wanted to know how they would fight for that flag let him ask the boys in blue how the boys in gray fought against it.

The President in his speech declared he was as much the President of the South as of the North and was devoted to the South's interests.

The Mississippi and its tributaries ought to be utilized to their utmost possibility.

These natural highways, the waterways, can never be monopolized by a corporation.

Whenever a navigable river runs beside railroads the problem of regulating the rates on the railroads becomes far easier, because river regulation is rate regulation.

The national government should undertake the work of providing wider and deeper channels.

The pollution of water used for the supply of towns and cities should be prevented.

Shall we continue the waste and destruction of our natural resources or shall we conserve them?

There is no other question of equal gravity now before the nation.

In the matter of supervision of the railway corporations we are acting as all civilized governments have acted or are on the point of acting.

The unrestricted issue of railway securities without supervision should not be permitted, and only by governmental action can it be prevented.

When the President closed his address he was driven rapidly to his special train at the Missouri Pacific station, whence he departed at 5 o'clock for Lake Providence, La., where a short stop was made this morning.

The train then proceeded to Alsatia, La., a small way station, where the cars were sidetracked. Here horses and guides awaited the visitors and the trip to the hunting camp was begun immediately upon arrival.

Besides several railway officials, only a few friends accompanied the President on this trip.

THE SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

President W. W. Finley, of the Southern Railway Company, said yesterday in New York that a rumor circulated in the financial district of a receiver for that company for financial, political, or any other reason was preposterous, President Finley added:

"Anybody familiar with the Southern Railway's financial condition must know that there is no reason of a financial nature for any such move. As for the suggestion that the property might be put in the hands of receivers by the Federal court as a means of thwarting political attacks, that has been heard before. It has never been seriously thought of by the management, which has elected, in fact, to pursue a policy of conciliation."

The exertion of further selling pressure on the shares of the Southern Railway, with the August statement of earnings as the pretext for a bear raid, drove the common down to 23 1-8 yesterday and the preferred to 47 7-8. The stocks rallied subsequently to 52 3-8 and 49, but closed with net losses of 7-8 for the common and 1 1-2 points for the preferred.

The August statement of earnings showed a decease of $177,754 in net, and bear operators used the showing as a foundation for rumors of all kinds. President Finley set these at rest shortly before the close of the market.

"Although operating expenses increased $522,625 in August," said Mr. Finley, "repairs of equipment to meet the fall and winter traffic requirements accounted for about two-thirds of this amount. The actual transportation expenses increased only 5.75 per cent, as against an increase of gross earnings of 8.19 per cent."

THE PEOPLE ALL

In Chorus Cried, Give Us Newbro's Herpicide.

This word of late has been in everyone's mouth, and many are wondering what the word signifies, though no one has yet been found who will deny that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE does the work. Well, for the information of thousands of people who like to know all about a good thing, we would say that HERPICIDE means, a destroyer or killer of "Herpes." Now "Herpes" is the family name of a disease caused by various vegetable parasites. A similar microbe causes dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair; this is the microbe that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE promptly destroys; after which the hair grows. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Two sizes—50 and $1.00. E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Special Agents. 61

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.

The deliberation of the various bodies in attendance upon the sessions in Richmond of the General Convention of the American Episcopal Church was marked yesterday by an address in the morning to the woman's auxiliary of the missionary board by the Bishop of London, addresses by the bishops representing the English Church in Canada and Australia before the House of Deputies, an address by the Bishop of Porto Rico before the House of Bishops and the presentation of a message of good cheer from the Archbishop of Canterbury, primate of England, to that body, and the joint session in the afternoon of the House of Bishops and the House of Deputies for the purpose of considering the reports and memorials of the missionary bishops in remote corners of the world.

The day was practically given over to the consideration of missionary subjects. The Bishop of London in his address before the woman's auxiliary in the Masonic Temple took occasion to praise the work of the women in their effort to raise $222,000 for the cause of missions. The Bishop of London was accompanied by Bishop Gibson, Bishop Montgomery, secretary of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel of England, and Misses Sallie Stuart, of Alexandria, and Julia C. Emory. He was introduced by Bishop Gibson. The Bishop, before announcing the benediction, requested the members of the auxiliary to give him a little place in their prayers.

St. Paul's Church was filled to overflowing when the House of Deputies was called to order by Rev. Dr. McKim, the president. The galleries overflowed with women. President McKin thanked the women of the auxiliary to the mission board in the name of the deputies for their great offering of Thursday for the cause of missions, cautioning them to refrain from talking during the sessions of the convention.

The chairman of the committee on new dioceses introduced a resolution recommending that the petition of the mission district of Duluth for formation into a diocese be favorably considered. The petition was favorably considered. The deputation from the Canadian and Australian churches were cordially greeted by Dr. McKim.

After a short session, which included only the reading of the minutes of yesterday, the introduction of the Bishop of Porto Rico and the reading of a letter of greeting from the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, the house of bishops adjourned the executive sessions which have marked their deliberations thus far and joined with the house of deputies in the discussion of the questions pertaining to missions, which was made the prominent order of the day.

Bishop Tuttle in opening the joint session made a brief address, after which the Rev. Dr. Henry A. Austice, secretary of the lower house, was elected, secretary. Dr. Arthur S. Lloyd, of New York, general secretary of the board of missions, delivered an address on "The Progress of Church Missions at Home and Abroad." He spoke encouragingly of the work now being done in the Philippine Islands, China, Japan and the Hawaiian Islands.

The keynote of the session was reached when the Bishop introduced George C. Thomas, of Philadelphia, Pa., treasurer of the mission board. The subject of the treasurer's address was, "Some Facts About the Offerings for Missions for the Past Three Years." At the conclusion of the address Dr. Thomas stated that money is not the only think needed in the evangelization of the world.

The afternoon session was taken up in the delivery of addresses on the general subject of missions.

The point was made that there is still plenty of room at home for missionary work.

An interesting prayer was delivered by Bishop Funston on missionary work in the Northwest, in which he spoke of the efforts now being made to bring the Indians of the reservation into the church.

A historical mass-meeting was held at the city Auditorium last night, and the public was given its only opportunity of hearing the Bishop of London during his visit to Virginia. An address was delivered also by Bishop Randolph, of the Diocese of Southern Virginia. The Bishop of London spoke at length of his search of the archives in London after his decision to visit the United States and speak at the triennial convention.

Practically all the proceedings at night were in relation to the early history of the church in America and its association with the mother church in England.

There was no session of either the House of Bishops or the House of Deputies today on account of the ceremonies at Bruton Church at Williamsburg.

PRESENTATION OF KING'S BIBLE

Historical interest in the Episcopal General Convention now in session in Richmond, centred largely around the ceremonies in Bruton Parish Church, Williamsburg, today, when the King's Bible and the President's lectern were presented to the congregation. The House of Clerical and Lay Deputies of the General Convention took action Wednesday, on motion of the Rev. Dr. Huntington, of New York, appointing a committee of one clergyman and one layman from each of the thirteen original States, together with representatives of the Diocese of Southern Virginia, to attend this service, at which the Lord Bishop of London made the principal address.

The occasion was one of peculiar historical significance, for the Lord Bishop of London preached from the pulpit of a church in America, where for over a century his predecessors in office held ecclesiastical jurisdiction.

The lectern was presented by Bishop Satterlee, of Washington, representing the President of the United States, and was received by the Bishop of Southern Virginia.

The Bible was presented by the Lord Bishop of London on behalf of King Edward and it was received by the presiding bishop of the American Episcopal Church.

The Bishops of Albany, of Virginia, Bishop Coadjutor of Southern Virginia and Rev. Dr. Huntington, of New York also took part in the morning service. The Bishops of Massachusetts, West Virginia, Georgia, North Carolina, Boise and the Rev. R. H. McKim, president of the House and Lay Deputies took part in the service of the afternoon.

The ceremonies mark the celebration of the tercentennary of the establishment of the Anglican Church in America. The services were largely attended many members of the convention, besides people from all over the State and country being present. The greatest churchmen of the continent and from abroad attended and an epoch was marked in church history.

The royal gift from England is a Bible of magnificent richness and elegance. The royal arms of England appear on an inlaid panel on the inside, as does the royal monogram. The arms of the United States appear on the inside back covering.

The front fly leaf bears the following inscription tooled in gold on an inlaid red Niger panel:

"This Bible is presented by his majesty King Edward VII, King of Great Britain and Ireland and Emperor of India, to the Church of Bruton, Va., a shrine rich in venerable traditions of worship, in solemn memories of patriots and statesmen, and in historic witness to the oneness of our peoples. The King will ever hope and pray that the ties of kinship and of language and the common heritage of ordered worship and of ennobling ideals may, through the saving faith of our Lord and Redeemer Jesus Christ, revealed in these sacred pages, continue to unite Great Britain and America in a beneficent fellowship for setting forward peace and goodwill among men. MCMVII."

The lectern which President Roosevelt presented to the old church is the work of J. Stewart Barney, of New York. Rising from a symbolic base is the Angel of Peace, a draped female form, whose upraised hands and folded wings support the desk of the lectern. The figure stands on a globe, with one foot resting on Great Britain and the other on the United States. The globe itself is supported by the British lion and the American eagle. Between these figures is the coat-of-arms of the English Washington family. Each of the three tablets at the base of the lectern bears an inscription. On one are the words, "To the Glory of God;" on another, "And Commemorative of the Three Hundredth Anniversary of the Permanent Establishment of English Civilization in America, 1607-1907," and on the third, "Presented by Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States."

The bronze bas-relief memorial given by the American Episcopal Church in memory of the life and service of the Rev. Robert Hunt, minister of the colony which landed at Jamestown on May 13, 1607, has been completed, and is expected to be placed on exhibition in the tower of Bruton Parish Church some time during the day.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Massachusetts Republicans.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 5 —United States Senator Henry Cabot Lodge in his address as chairman of the republican State convention here today dismissed the tariff question as untimely and the question of Canadian reciprocity as unworthy of consideration. He asserted further that both these matters were national policies and had nothing to do with the election of a state governor. He said in part:

"Every one knows that no party, republicans or democratic, would think of undertaking a revision of the tariff on the eve of a presidential election. Not only is it forbidden to both parties by the most obvious party expediency, but to bring on a period of uncertainty and suspense in the industrial world would, in a presidential year, when conditions are always disturbed, be a grave wrong and a serious injury to the business of the country. Nothing we can do or say or vote for in this election will effect in the slightest degree the action of Congress in regard to the tariff next winter. We shall, I hope, and believe, declare for revision, which I, for one, have been urging for the last three years, at our next national convention and we shall then, I trust, carry that into effect along protective lines, immediately after the fourth of March, 1909."

Kicking Horse Started Fire.

Centralvillage, Conn., Oct. 5.—A kicking horse which in the last two weeks had killed her husband and inflicted injuries from which her child died, is believed to have fired the barn of Miss Fannie Moriarity, on the Old Ballou farm, here today, causing a fire in which her brother lost his his life. Incidentally the horse put an end to its kicking career as it, too, was burned to death. A lantern was usually left burning near the stall of the evil-tempered horse. It is supposed the animal managed to kick it over, and the stable became a mass of flames. William Aptley ran into the burning barn to save the stock. He was overcome by the smoke and his body burned to a crisp. Twenty head of cattle also were burned.

Afflicted With Sore Eyes for 33 Years.

I have been afflicted with sore eyes for thirty-three years. Thirteen years ago I became totally blind and was blind for six years. My eyes were badly inflamed. One of my neighbors insisted upon my trying Chamberlain's Salve and gave me half a box of it. To my surprise it healed my eyes and my sight came back to me.—P. O. Earles, Cynthiana, Ky. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Delayed Cunard Steamer.

Liverpool, Oct. 5.—The Cunard liner Umbria has not yet been sighted or heard from, although under ordinary circumstances she should have reported herself by wireless early this morning, and this has led to the greatest concern for her safety in view of yesterday's dispatches from New York saying she had reported wirelessly to the Cedric that she had suffered severe damage in the recent storm on the Atlantic.

Sixty-three Girls Killed.

Osaka, Japan, Oct. 5.—Sixty-three girls engaged in sorting condemned shells and cartridges were killed and more than sixty injured by an explosion in the Takatsuke factory today. The factory is in flames and several boats also filled with explosives, are on fire.

Stomach troubles, Heart and Kidney ailments, can be quickly corrected with a prescription known to druggists everythere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The prompt and surprising relief which this remedy immediately brings is entirely due to its Restorative action upon the controlling nerves of the Stomach, etc. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

To Introduce Mr. Bryan.

[Special dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., Oct. 5.—Gov. Swanson was first invited to introduce Mr. W. J. Bryan at the State fair next Friday, but he begged off on the ground that he would be officially engaged at the Jamestown Exposition. Ex-Gov. Montague has been invited and it is understood that he will accept.

President Roosevelt.

Lake Providence, La., Oct. 5.—Abundant game and lots of bear tracks await President Roosevelt today. Two hunters detailed to provide fresh meat shot two big bucks yesterday. Lake Providence is crowded with visitors to greet the President. Instead of going to Alsatia by train, Mr. Roosevelt will take the saddle at Stampoul. He will ride fifteen miles from there to camp.

Tallualh, La., Oct. 5.—President Roosevelt's bear hunt has begun. The Missouri Pacific special train bearing him from Memphis arrived here this morning. The chief executive's camp is to be pitched in the wilderness. The President is the guest of John McIlhenney, civil service commissioner from Louisiana.

President Roosevelt has barred newspaper men from his camp. Some of them had made arrangements to stay as guests at some of the President hosts, but Mr. Roosevelt gave the word and the invitations were recalled. The correspondents that always accompany the President on his trips were not even allowed to come on the special train with him. They were forced to take the one train that runs between Tallulah and Stamboul this evening and will arrive several hours after the President.

The Settlement on Count Szechenyi.

Newport, R. I., Oct. 5.—The Vanderbilt family is in conference today over the question, it is reported, of the amount and terms of the financial settlement to be made on Count Ladislaus Szechenyi when he weds Miss Gladys Vanderbilt the latter part of October. Members of Miss Glady's own family have called a number of representatives of collateral Vanderbilt lines into the conference. The H. McKay Twimblys are among those in attendance. Rumor has it that the count will get $5,000,000. Of course nothing definite has been or will be given out, though details concerning the settlement will probably gradually reach the public through friends of the family.

Bolt in Convention.

Springfield, Mass., Oct. 5.—The liveliest and bitterest Democratic convention ever held in Massachusetts resulted in a split today and the naming of both Henry M. Whitney and Charles W. Bartlett for Governor. The Whitney men came here with an acknowledged majority of delegates, but the Bartlett succeeded in capturing the convention machinery. When the Whitney supporters saw the Bartlett men in control they feared they would be overriden and bolted. Bartlett was named in the auditorium, while the bolter collected in the rear hall, in rump convention, nominating Whitney. The feeling ran high and the breach in the party is wide.

The America's Cup.

Stockholm, Sweden, Oct. 5.—From the declarations coming today from an official source it is evident that Swedish Yachtmen are very much in earnest in their desire to race for the America's cup and it is regarded here as a certainty that there will be a cup race between Sweden and America in 1909. It was officially announced that Sweden does not wish to impose the conditions suggested by Sir Francis Lipton in his recent challenge, but will arrange a race without conditions of any kind.

Jumped from Third-story Window

Carthage, Mo., Oct. 5.—In an attempt to escape from a convent to the arms of her sweetheart, Miss Maud Von Tilborsee, 17, of Beloit, Kas., leaped from the third-story window of a hotel here late yesterday just as the city marshal was about to take hold of her. She was seriously injured and will be returned to the convent later. The girls says the convent authorities intercepted letters written to her and piqued she decided to flee. Hes parents placed her in the convent.

Secretary Taft at Nagasaki.

Nagasaki, Japan, Oct. 5—The steamship Minnesota, with Secretary of War Taft and his party on board, arrived early today. An almost regal reception was tendered the visitors. The Taft party will go next to Manila.

Peported Revolution in Portugal.

Paris, Oct. 5.—A rumor was current on the Bourse today that a revolution has broken out in Portugal. It was impossible to confirm the report, but Portugese residents are frantic as a result of the rumor.

Some excitement was created in the lobby of a Washington hotel early last night by a fight in which three men participated. The trouble was originated by a man who took some unwarrantable liberties with a young woman while she was talking to the clerk. No arrest were made.

MISS STUART'S SPEECH.

An interesting service took place at Holy Trinity Church in Richmond Thursday when the Woman's Auxiliary had its triennial thank off ring. The sermon was preached by Bishop Gibson. The united thank offering amounted to more than $100,000. The attendance was so great that many were turned away, and an overflow meeting was held at All Saint's Church, where a sermon was preached by Bishop Randolph. In the afternoon the auxiliary met in the City Auditorium and listened to addresses by Bishop Roots, of Hankow; Bishop Spalding, of Salt Lake; Bishop Aves, of Mexico, and Dr. Lloyd, general secretary of the Board of Missions.

The officers of the Woman's Auxiliary in Canada were presented to the meeting, and one of them made a short address, thanking her sisters in the United States for their co-operation which has greatly assisted the work of the society in Canada.

Adresses of greeting were made by Miss Julia C. Emery, secretary of the society, and Miss Stuart, president of the Virginia branch, said in part:

"In the name of the women of the Virginia Branch, it is my pleasant duty and privilege, and I count it a high honor as their president, to bid you a cordial welcome to this old Diocese of Virginia. Three hundred years of welcome ring out to-day from all our hearts as we greet this representative body of devout women from North, South, East and West, from beyond the seas as well as from Canada.

"You are come to unite your thanksgiving with ours on this great anniversary, and to make this day, so long anticipated, a day to be remembered, and to make us of old Virginia glad for years to come. So, with our 'Welcome,' we 'thank you' for your presence, for the bringing to us that which you cannot take away—the sweet influences and happy memories that will linger after you leave us.

"We must cherish our past for the sake of the future, lest we forget to remember all 'the way the Lord our God hath led us' these 300 years.

"We of Virginia bid you welcome to our midst, daughters of this great American church, whether by inheritance or adoption, for we claim to be the mother of you all.' 'One in Christ, one in heart, one in missionary work in hand.' The keystone of the arch that supports our organization is the unity of the Woman's Auxiliary. Again we bid you welcome to our hearts and homes. All we have is yours to command while our guests. Again and again, a cordial welcome to Virginia!"

PISTOL SHOTS.

About 2:15 o'clock this morning three pistol shots were heard on Cameron street, between Fairfax and Royal. The policemen on duty endeavored to ascertain the cause, but they were unable to do so. Lieut. Bettis today ascertained that the shots were fired from the rear of the Tontine Hotel by Mr. Coles, one of the proprietors. The noise a burglar was making in endeavoring to open the blinds of a window awakened Mr. Coles, and procuring a pistol he started after the trespasser. The latter heard him coming and ran north through the yard, making his escape. It was while the man was fleeing that the shots were fired. The would-be thief was endeavoring to enter a room where a quantity of liquor is stored.

W. C. T. U.

The 25th annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Virginia was held in Harrisonburg this week. The delegates from Alexandria were Mrs. Mary Mathews, Mrs. Noland and Miss Slayton, who brought back a glowing account of the convention and the beautiful town in which it was held. Two sessions of the convention were presided over by Mrs. Amy Weech, who is the State Secretary for the Young Woman's Christian Temperance Union, as well as the State Organizer. Miss Tinling, of England, was present and delivered a fine address. Nearly 100 delegates were present, and the convention was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Roanoke will be the next place of meeting.

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

Under a resolution of the board of trustees of the Theological Seminary, near this city, there will be a suspension of lectures from yesterday until Monday, October 14th, so as to permit the members of the faculty and the students to attend some of the sessions and meetings connected with the Episcopal General Convention, now sitting in Richmond. A number of the students left yesterday. Dr. Crawford, the dean of the seminary, is one of the deputies from the diocese of Virginia to the convention and of course will be absent from the seminary during the whole time attending the sessions. The meeting of the alumni of the seminary will take place on the night of next Friday, when a banquet will be held in the Masonic Temple, Richmond. It is expected that a large number of the alumni will be present, and an invitation has also been given to the students of the seminary.

WEISS STILL HELD.

Jacob Weiss and his daughter, Amelia, who were arrested yesterday in connection with the assault last Sunday afternoon in the county on John W. Mullen, who was shot twice and seriously wounded, are still held in jail. Emile, son of Jacob Weiss, last night stated that he would go on his father's bond, but this morning he declined to do so, saying that his father was innocent. Commonwealth's Attorney Mackey had agreed to fix the bond at $1,000 and the refusal of young Weiss to be bondsman greatly surprised Mr. Mackey. The girl, Amelia Weiss, is still held in jail as a witness. She still says that she was assaulted by a negro. No examination into the case will be held till Mullen is able to appear. This it is said he will do in a few days.

WATER FOR DEL RAY.

Some time since a number of residents of Del Ray requested the Alexandria Water Company to supply that village with water. The company acquiesced under certain conditions. The county supervisors, however, imposed such restrictions that the company declined to extend the mains. At a meeting of citizens of Del Ray last night the supervisors were requested to modify the conditions they originally adopted and at a meeting of the supervisors today this was done. It is believed that the water mains will now soon be extended to Del Ray.

"THE SHOPLIFTER."

"The Shoplifter," a melodrama of merit, will be the attraction at the Opera House next Thursday night, and judging from the advance sale of seats a crowded house will greet the company. The company is a large one and carries an immense lot of scenery for the production. Among the scenes will be a stone quarry where rock blasting is going on. A terrific explosion will take place and the villian will be killed by a rock falling on him. Miss Adelaide Walters, who created the part of "Lil, the Waif," will appear in the latest songs and dances.

A MEETING FOR MEN.

There will be a meeting for men in the lecture room of the M. E. Church South, tomorrow afternoon from 3:30 to 4:30 o'clock—just one hour. An address will be delivered by Rev. Joseph R. Sevier, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church. Subject: "A Truncated Life." There will be a solo by Mr. Kenneth W. Ogden. The following will participate in the exercises: H. K. Field, chorister; A. L. Jameson, violin, C. J. Howell, violin; C. W. Fleet, cornet; Frederick Hill, clarionet; Tebe Creighton, piano. A cordial invitation is extended to all men.

GYPSY FORTUNE-TELLERS.

A band of gypsy fortune-tellers (male and female) have been moving about the city during the past few days. They are subject to a license tax of $100 for conducting such a business, and members of the gang were this morning inquiring for the Commissioner of the Revenue from whom they expected to procure a pro rata license. It is understood that they were willing to pay $75 provided more than one of the party could engage in forecasting the history of such people as may desire to cast a glimpse into the future.

COMMITTEE ON POOR.

The committee on poor held a meeting recently and elected Councilman Williams chairman. It was decided to have one meeting each month and examine and approve all bills contracted in the prior month. The Keeper of the Poorhouse was to be directed when certifying to his correctness of bills to have such bills left at the Auditor's office a few days after the first day of each month in order that the committee might have ample time to examine each and every bill.

COSTLY PEARLS.

After scouring the cities of America and Europe for the most perfect string of pearls to be found, James B. Duke, head of the tobacco trust, has just presented to Mrs. Duke—formerly Mrs. William Inman, of Atlanta—a necklace that cost him $200,000.

Every pearl in the outfit, which includes a "dog collar" necklace and an arrangement of loops of the jewels designed to fall artistically over the shoulders, is perfect. Those entering into the collar are the size of small peas, while those that form the festoons range in size from a large pea to a hazelnut. Mrs. Duke will have her first opportunity of exhibiting her pearls in a proper surrounding at the opening of the season at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York in the parterre row, of which the multimillionaire tobacco man is said to have secured a box.

Mrs. Duke does not, by reason of the new gift, rank as the possessor of the most valuable set of pearls among American women. The most valuable in America, if not in the world, is owned by Mrs. Frederick Pearson, of New York, figured at nearly $1,000,000. Next in value is the collection of diamonds and pearls owned by Mrs. James Henry Smith, the widow of "Silent Smith," who, as a wedding gift, presented her with a set of jewels valued at more than $500,000. Then there are the William B. Leeds and the Mrs. L. Harrison Dulles pearls, estimated, respectively, at $238,000 and $100,000.

How to Cure a Cold.

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Hard Times in Kansas.

The old days of grasshoppers and drought are almost forgotten in prosperous Kansas of today, although a citizen of Codell, Earl Shamburg, has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered. He says: "I was worn out and discouraged by coughing night and day, and could find no relief till I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. It took less than one bottle to completely cure me." The safest and most reliable cough and cold remedy and lung and throat healer ever discovered. Guaranteed by all drug stores. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

SAYS SHE KILLED HUSBAND.

Impelled, it is believed, by mother love and a desire to shield and save her son, Mrs. Minnie Chadwick has made a remarkable confession in the little village of Atlanta, county seat of Montmorency county, 250 miles north of Detroit, Mich., in the heart of the Pine Barrens, that she shot and killed her husband, Charles E. Chadwick, a mill foreman, whose body was found in the road near his home 10 days ago. Footprints near the body and other circumstances led to Chadwick's son, Eugene, being suspected of the killing, and he is under arrest. In a written confession Mrs. Chadwick says she shot her husband with her son's rifle because he abused her. She said she put on a pair of the boy's shoes, followed her husband down the road and killed him. After writing the confession she tried to commit suicide, but a deputy broke into her room in time to take the revolver from her.
